A Message from the President

Hello everyone,

The leaves are turning and fall is in the air. There is so much going on this month. This Thursday, Oct. 8th, Laura Cramblet, from The Bellaire Public Library, and I will be getting locked up for Muscular Dystrophy at River City in Wheeling. Our goal is $2400.00. If anyone would like to help, please go to www2.mda.org. and type in either my name or Laura's. Thank you in advance

On Oct. 10th, the National Imperial Glass Museum will be holding their glass auction in the Bellaire Library Activity Room starting at 4:00 p.m. to benefit the museum. Inspection starts at 3:00 p.m. There will also be a lunch stand by Big I Study Group. For pictures go to www.imperialglass.org or for more information call 740-671-3971.

Welcome to our newest member of the Bellaire Area Chamber of Commerce, Microtel Inn and Suites

The Bellaire Senior Center will be holding a Fund Raiser on Friday October 16th from 9a.m.-2p.m. There will be a Chinese auction, a 50/50, plus they will be selling sloppy joes, hot dogs, chili dogs, meatball hoagies, macaroni salad, potato salad, and homemade cakes, cookies, and pies. at 11:00 a.m. David Milovac will perform.

The Trinity Episcopal Church, located at 553 43rd Street, will be holding a Rummage Sale this Friday and Saturday, October 9th and 10th starting at 9:00 a.m.

St. Johns Church located at 415 37th Street, will be holding their annual card party on November 8th in the church basement. Doors open at 12 noon and starts at 1:00. Lunch will start at 2:00p.m. For reservations, please call 740-676-0051

Boo In The Park will be Oct 20th from 6:00p.m.-7:30p.m. We are expecting 600 children again this year. We will start decorating the park at 10:00 a.m. on Oct. 20. We need all of the help that we can get in setting up, manning booths, and tearing down if anyone is interested.

We will be deciding on the theme and grand marshal for our Christmas parade. Please let us know if you have any ideas. Our parade is scheduled for November 28th starting at 6:30 p.m. with line up starting at 5:30 p.m. Please consider putting in an entry for your business. There is no charge to enter and trophies and cash prizes are awarded. We are also looking for someone to donate a Christmas Tree for our Remembrance Tree. If anyone is interested, please call me.

As always if you have any questions, concerns, or comments, please call the Chamber at 740-676-9723 or me at 740-676-4817.

Sincerely,
Lou Ann Bennett, President

UPDATES /ANNOUNCEMENTS

Farmers' Market News– The Ohio Valley Farmers' Market is entering its final month of the 2015 season. Several activities and special guests will appear in October.

The Belmont County Master Gardeners will provide children's activities on October 10th and 17th making pine cone bird feeders on the 10th and decorating gourds and pumpkins on the 17th. On October 24th, Greg Park, former naturalist at Schrader Environmental Center, will play pioneer games with the kids.

The market will wrap up on October 31st, with its annual Trick-or-Treat at the Market. Children can come dressed in costume and trick-or-treat from vendor to vendor. There will be games at the Kid's Corner as well. Patrons can sample hot apple cider and complimentary coffee at the market tent. Chef Ryan Butler of the Vagabond Kitchen will be on-site with a cooking demonstration entitled Pumpkins Aren't Just for Pies. The event will also feature our inaugural Costumed Canine Contest.. Patrons can dress their dogs to compete in one of three categories: funniest, scariest and most original. Sherrie McCutcheon will serve as judge. A $20 Pet Supply gift card will be awarded to the winner in each category. The market is sponsored by Belmont Savings Bank and Bauknecht-Altmeier Funeral Homes sponsors the phone line for the USDA SNAP program. Flyers are available if you would like to help promote these special events. New sponsors are welcome. For information, please contact Susan West at 740-676-8187...

Boo In The Park– The All-American Days Festival Committee will be holding the 10th Annual Boo In The Park on October 20th from 6-7:30 p.m. This event is free and open to all children that either live in Bellaire or go to school in Bellaire that are 12 years of age and under. There will be 20 stands throughout the park giving away treats. After the children pass through Boo In The Park, they will then cross Guernsey Street to the First United Methodist Church where they will have Trunk or Treat. They will start transforming the park into a Halloween wonderland at 10:00 a.m. on the 20th. If you are interested in sponsoring a station or would like to help in any way please call LouAnn Bennett at 740-676-4817...
